Woodmen Given Decided Treat, In Which Petaluma Camp Participated

Bear Flag Camp No. 758, Woodmen of the World, entertained its members and friends at the local hall Friday evening of last week, at a splendid gathering which will go down in fraternal circles of Sonoma as one of the best lodge meetings of the year.

The three-reel fraternal photoplay "The Woodman," was shown by Chas. H. Ellis, who proved a dramatic artist and entertainer of exceptional ability. He gave several numbers following the picture, which won the hearty applause of all present.

Consul Commander Tom Baines presided at the opening of the program and introduced J. Van Hooser, who gave an inspiring talk on the merits and growth of the Order. A large delegation from Petaluma came over to join Bear Flag Camp on the occasion and Captain Budd and some of his uniformed drill team were among those present.

The local Camp numbers almost 40 members at present. Thos. Baines, L. H. Green and J. F. Erickson being foremost in the upbuilding of Bear Flag Camp.

Dancing and refreshments concluded the evening.

FRANK LAMBERT PASSES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Was In San Francisco Hospital Following Accident From Which He Never Fully Recovered.

Frank Lambert, who had resided in Sonoma Valley for many years, passed away at his home south of town Sunday. Mr. Lambert has been in poor health for some time. He recently returned from a hospital in San Francisco, where he had gone for treatment for a broken collar bone. He had an accidental fall several months ago and the fractured bone failed to knit right, causing infection which got into his lung. Deceased came home but never rallied from the drastic treatment which his condition had necessitated.

His wife and daughter, Mrs. James, tenderly cared for him as the end neared, and death came as a surcease to his suffering on Sunday.

The funeral took place Wednesday from the Bates undertaking parlors. Mr. Lambert was 50 years of age and a native of France.

Harvey Manuel and his wife were here from San Francisco last week and visited Mr Manuel's brother-in-law, E. Cutter, who has been critically ill at Crane's Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eutwisle of Chicago, Ill., have returned to San Francisco after a very pleasant 2 week visit with Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Charlat of the Blue Bird Farm, El Verano.

DEATH SUMMONS PROMINENT RESIDENT

Mayor Charles Dal Poggetto City Official and Big Property Owner Dies After Short Illness Wednesday Morning.

"Do thou the good thy thoughts oft mediate
And thou shalt feel the good mans peace within
And after death his wreath of glory win"

The community was shocked Wednesday morning by the news that Charles Dal Poggetto, Mayor of tthe city of Sonoma, and prominent citizen, had passed away following the short illness which which had confined to his home. Erysipelas followed by double pneumonia caused his death.

Mr. Dal Poggetto had served three terms as city trustee and had twice been honored with the appointment of Chairman of the Board. He took exceptional interest and pride in his office and was a conscientious official and splendid citizen Coming to America when a young man, he determined to become a good and useful citizen of the United States and that he succeeded his public life attests. Not only was he successful and the recipient of honors at the hands of his fellow townsmen, but he also became quite wealthy and leaves much property as evidence of his thrift and frugality. Devoted to home and family, he was exceptionally proud at the outbreak of the recent war to have his son participate in the great conflict overseas. He was prominent in patriotic work throughout the anxious months when our boys were in France and proved his Americanism constantly.

The public service he has rendered the city and devotion to his community will never be forgotten and his zeal is believed by some to have hastened his death He was most ambitious for the progress and improvement of the city and often said of late that when he had accomplished his recent important work and had seen the streets of Sonoma paved he would then feel that he could retire, knowing that he had helped to bring about one of the most important eras in the town's advancement.

Genial and sympathetic he won friends in all walks of life. His own countrymen, widows and orphans, poor and rich alike appreciated the many fine traits of this good man. He will be greatly missed by every one and his passing from among us leaves a void hard indeed to fill.

Deceased was 61 years of age and a native of Poneara, Italy. A widow two daughters Alma Dal Poggetto and Mrs. Gilia Rivera and one son, Newton, are left to mourn a devoted husband and father. His late home has been thronged with sorrowing friends the past few days and handsome floral offerings tell something of the love, esteem and respect this good citizen won during the all too short years alloted him on this earth.

Besides the many individuals sending flowers, there were many handsome floral pieces from the Y. M. I., American Legion, City Officials of Sonoma, Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, Sonoma Businessmens' Association and the business associates and neighbors of deceased, P. Boccoli, Jas. McElney, F. Mosso, P. W. Paulson, C. La Torres and others.

The funeral takes place today from St. Francis church with interment in Mountain cemetery, the Silent City in the recent improvement of which he had taken great pride.

All businss houses will be closed this morning on account of the funeral.

Contractor C. C. Bean is making fine progress on the new St. Francis parochial residence. Pete Besaglia completed the stone foundation and cellar last week.

NEW CONCRETE BRIDGE IS OPENED TO TRAFFIC

Concrete Steel Span Replaces Historic Cooper Bridge Over Sonoma Creek.

The new 217 ft. concrete and steel bridge which Supervisor Harry Weise was instrumental in having built over Sonoma Creek to replace the wooden hand hewn structure known as the Cooper bridge was thrown open to traffic this week

The famous old landmark built in 1854 and said to be one of the oldest bridges in Sonoma County was razed and dismantled and thus passes a time honored crossing which did service in the days of stage coaches and heavy teaming With the passing of years and the coming of countless motorists who whizzed along the sharp curve on to the weakening structure came the call for a safer and more modern and permanent bridge to care for traffic. J. H. Weise, then Supervisor, called the attention of the County Engineer and Board of Supervisorss to this need in his district, with the result that the fine plan which materialized into the ornamental span now completed was drawn, and accepted by the Supervisors. The contract price on the new bridge, a little over $15,000, did not give the taxpayers any idea they were to have so handsome and substantial a bridge as the one turned over to the County this week by Contractor Albers of Santa Rosa. It is a structure of which any locality could well be proud

Residents of Sonoma Valley would like to have seen a dedication ceremony arranged by Supervisor Lowell in honor of the new bridge's completion.

TAXATION REFORM POSSIBLE

PREDATORY POLITICIANS tell the people that taxation must go higher and higher, and that retrenchment and reduction of taxes is a dream.

The political machine that is usually bi-partisan in each state fights injection of business principles in public affairs.

The machine wants more public plunder, more offices, nepotism, extravagance and multiplication of the functions of government.

Governor Miller of New York won a great victory over the machine when he cut appropriations $800,000,000 below the budget and abolished 3,000 state jobs.

Two western state treasurers are running their departments without increased salaries and making their offices earn more than they cost the people—in Oregon and California.

Taxation reform is possible on one basis—make all offices earn their own support from those who get the services rendered, instead of taxing the general public.—Manufacturer.

THE OIL INDICATIONS IN SONOMA VALLEY

IF OIL REALLY EXISTS in the Sonoma Valley and the undercurrent is anything as strong as the faith some feel in this valley as a future producer, we will have gushers in our midst which will rival the best in the country. Perhaps the faith is well founded, since scientists have been making tests and soundings, and the science of oil discovery should by now be close to an exact one. Geologists are most encouraging.

We who know Sonoma Valley best, know it has been favored by the Creator with many blessings and exceptional natural advantages. That oil should be one of them would not surprise those who are to delve deeper into the treasure-box which lies about us. The marvelous artesian belt, flowing springs, hot mineral water, natural gas, with which we have long been acquainted, tell something of the wonders of the subterrean conditions beneath the ground in our favored "Valley of the Moon."

THE SUPERVISORS have been enabled to save life and property by properly fixing roads and menacing turns, which in the past had regularly claimed their toll. Right here in Sonoma Valley we have benefitted by changes and safe-guards of this sort, but there is still work to be done. The piece of abandoned road near El Verano, which heads directly for Sonoma Creek, and which caused a bad accident only last week, should be completely closed up. It is a decided menace to motorists and is deceiving to those unacquainted with our roads.

The abrupt turn and tree at the Baccala corner between Sonoma and the El Verano bridge has been the scene of altogether too many accidents. The latter curve may be changed when the State Highway Commission decides where it wants to route the Schellville-Santa Rosa road. However, our supervisors should not let another summer season find this corner "as is," for with the ever increasing traffic the menace becomes that much greater.

There are enough auto accidents everywhere without inviting more. Safe-guarding motorists is worthy of serious thought and prompt action on the part of our officials.

AND NOW they are embarrassing the State Fair officials by asking that a prize be given for the best home-brew or hootch. Secretary Paine is understood to have replied that the new domestic art or indoor sport needed no encouragement. They might offer a prize for a "kick" satisfactory to consumers, and perfectly kickless, so far as tthe "dry" agents are concerned. Such a beverage would be worthy a premium.

EVERY GARAGE was closed at nine o'clock one Saturday night not long ago, and visiting motorists declared that Sonoma must be a sleepy town sure enough. Why not get together, boys, and arrange to always have one garage on the job in case the rest must close, just for the sake of the community and its reputation for service.

DUST PANS are more popular with Sonoma housewives now than almost any other implement. Sonoma city is house-cleaning, that's the reason, but it won't take forever to pave our streets: so ladies, have a heart!

GLEN ELLEN PARTY VISITORS TO YOSEMITE

A party of motorists, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Weise, Harold Weise and Miss Davidson, have been touring the Yosemite and other points of interest. The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Weise, are still receiving many handsome wedding presents, several having arrived since their departure.

Harold Weise has completed his course at law college and taken the examination for admittance to the bar.

TO REDUCE COUNTY FARM FORCE

Sonoma county's force of farm experts will be maintained at present strength until October, when an assistant will be dismissed, according to Farm Advisor Henry A. Weinland who has returned from a conference with Prof. B. H. Crocheron, state head of farm advisors, at Berkeley. It is believed the assistant will readily find employment elsewhere when dismissed.

Weinland has abandoned the idea of creating an itinerant advisor, but hopes to obtain additional assistance during the busy season next year. The department expects to carry on the most important branches of its work with its reduced force.—Press Democrat.

Judge Lester Small decided the case of F. Wedekind and A. F. Hopke in favor of the former. The case was over the ownership of three old buggies on the Hopke ranch, which was sold to Mr Wedekind.

Mrs Searey and son of Point Richmond have returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Searcy's mother and sister, Mrs. Culberson and Miss Lydia.

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Streeter this week. This is the second child in the family of the well known young farmer.

A freight engine jumped the track at Madrone one day this week and landed in the vineyard, obstructing traffic for some little time.

Mr and Mrs. A. Calleund of San Rafael, formerly of Buena Vista, have departed for Europe and expect to be gone some time.

Mrs. McDermott and baby and Mrs. Landeaux of San Francisco have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. Mouver.

COMPLETE PAINTING OF BATTO BLOCK

The Batto block, including the First National Bank building, has recently received the final touches of the fine paint job done by Muller & Downey. The bricks were outlined with paint of ox blood color, which came from France, and was applied very effectively.

Fred Batto, the enterprising property owner, believes in keeping his buildings up to date, and declares all it needs now is the paved street and a plaza planted to lawn to set it off.

ELDREDGE ITEMS

Dr. George Ordahl will be in Berkeley all of next week giving a lecture course in phychology, at the summer session of the University of California.

Dr. A. A. Thurlow and family have returned from a two weeks' vacation spent at Long Beach.

Miss Beatrice Lantz, her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lantz, and Miss Minda Letterman of Chicago, spent the week-end camping at Muir Woods and Tamalpais.

Mrs. E. V. Emery and daughter, Jane, are visiting Mrs. Emery's parents in Los Angeles.

Miss S. Majjetti has returned from an outing of two weeks spent on the Russian River.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Kreiss and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson entertained a large number of friends at Glen Ellen for the three days' holiday over the Fourth. The party came up in machines from San Francisco and enjoyed tramping over the hills and also visiting several of the beauty spots of the valley. Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Osburn of Tonopah, Nevada, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burberry, Mr. and Mrs. P. Mortola, Henry Kancher, William Convey, Ray Morris, Miss Sarah Convey and Miss Margaret Downes.

The Sisters of the Presentation Convent, who have been visiting here, are returning to San Francisco. Mother Zavier of St. Agnes School, the fine Asbury street educational institution, left on Thursday. The city schools re-open August first. There is very little likelihood of the local convent being re-opened, so the Sisters declare.

WELL KNOWN JURIST GIVES CHURCH-GOERS TREAT

Judge C. W. Eastin, who has been sojourning in this valley after busy days in his law offices in San Francisco, demonstrated his talent as speaker and elocqutionist by giving a splendid recitation at the Congregational church, last Sunday night. He will recite again to-morrow night.

The Judge is well known in bay city legal circles and is an old friend of W. W. Carter of this place.

The will was executed on the 16th day of February of this year, when the deceased was 74 years of age. By the will Bruce Weatherhead is made the principal devisee. Two sons of the deceased also received small legacies from the estate. The will was witnessed by Henry Weber, Jr., and Jesse Burris.

CLEWE AWARDED CONTRACT

The contract to furnish the new schoolroom at the Sonoma Grammar School has been let to F Clewe, who was the successful bidder on desks, seats, blackboards and teacher's desk The new room is to house the primary grades and is located on the ground floor, so that the little pupils of Miss Alice Young will have no steps to climb or descend.

Miss Young and Miss Chester are the new teachers for the coming term. Sonoma's Grammar School will have seven teachers in all.

Mrs. S. A. Robinson has been enjoying a visit from her mother and sisters, Mrs. Lawrence and daughters, of Berkeley and San Francisco.

CHARLEY MOSS MARRIES CHARMING GEYSERVILLE GIRL

Thursday, the 14th, many friends of Miss Dorothy Fay, and Charles Moss received cards announcing the marriage that day of the well known young people.

The young lady is a talented musician and has an amiable, generous disposition that wins friends for her wherever she may be.

The young man's grand-father is a Sonoma county man and well known in this part of the county.

A soldier in the late war is the bridegroom, and doubtless many of his brothers in the great conflict may be glad to hear of his new happiness, and that he has won a charming, loveable girl who delights in her home and its surroundings.

The young people left by the early Thursday morning train and were married in the beautiful vine-covered church in San Rafael. They planned to spend a few days about the bay, then make Geyserville their permanent home.

SONOMA HAS FINE PEAR CROP

The pear crop in Sonoma Valley this year is one of the best, and excells the Bartlett production in all the nearby counties. It is expected that about 35 carloads will be shipped out this season at a better price than many other fruits. The Earl Fruit Co. is paying from 35 to 65 dollars for Bartletts.

The Cooper-Clements party, who went north and are bound for Alaska, write enthusiastically of the trip. Miss Edna Cooper stopped off enroute to visit her father, Tom Cooper, of Outlook. Washington, and Miss Arnot visited her former home in Vancouver.

Miss Tamara Lawb was up from San Francisco Saturday and declares she misses Sonoma greatly. The young dancer was offered a 40-week engagement on the Orpheum circuit, but did not care to be away from her folks so long.

Mr. and Mrs. Sokalay, formerly of Sonoma, have removed from San Francisco to Los Angeles. Mr. Sokalay will be remembered for the musical treat he gave local music lovers when he gave his song recital here.

Adolph Lutgens of Vallejo, the well known architect, was a visitor to his brother, Henry, here this week.

COUNTY DIVISION LOOMS IN COURT PROCEDURE

The setting up of a separate and new county of Petaluma, inclusive of a great portion of Sonoma Valley, continues to menace. Court action is the latest step in the program.

A temporary writ of mandate, issued out of the California supreme court at San Francisco last week, orders the supervisors of Sonoma county to appear before that court Monday, August 1st, and show cause why the writ should not be made permanent, and why they should not call an election in Sonoma county on the petition of those people in the Petaluma section who are desirous of having that part of the count vote on county division.

The present law gives the entire county of Sonoma a vote on the matter. Petaluma aims to have this law declared unconstitutional believing if only people residing within the boundary lines of the new county vote on the formation, that the partition of Sonoma county will be an easy matter.

Here is what the Petaluma Argus says of the proceedings to date:

"The filing in the Supreme Court of the new county petition marks a milestone in a program outlined at a dinner given in Petaluma some two years ago. At that dinner it was unanimously determined that Petaluma should be the county seat of a new county Attorneys present advised that there was just one possible way to accomplish that end. They held that the present county division law is unconstitutional: that the Supreme Court would so hold; that the Supreme Court would, under proper procedure, restore the law of 1907; that under the law of 1907 the people of the new county area would be enabled to set up the new county. The procedure to get into the Supreme Court required the preparation of a petition signed by more than fifty per cent of the voters of the New County area. The petition was prepared and filed with the board of supervisors. The supervisors, as was anticipated and desired, denied the petition. The writ of mandate filed in the supreme court Thursday was the result of all these activities. Down to date, therefore, all that the New County Committee of Fifteen expected or hoped to accomplish has been accomplished. Further progress depends upon the supreme court.

GARAGE OWNERS AT BOYES IN COURTS

W. B. King filed a superior court complaint against Erie Blomgren Monday, claiming that a co-partnership was formed in June, 1919, by the defendant and the plaintiff under the firm name of the "Boyes Springs Garage." King claims that when the co-partnership was formed it was understood that Blomgren should devote his entire time to the business and be in charge of tthe repairing of the machines. He claims that for the last six months, Blomgren has not devoted more than two-thirds of his time to the business, in consequence of which the business has been conducted at a loss for that period.

He asks that the co-partnership be dissolved, a receiver be appointed and an account to be taken of all the dealings and transactions of the firm, that the property belonging to the firm be sold and proceeds after the liabilities are paid, be distributed between the plaintiff and the defendant.

JUDGE THOMPSON MAKES QUICK WORK OF DEPOT ROBBER

That Thomas Blinn, arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan in Sonoma last week, in the act of robbing the Sonoma depot, has served three terms in prison, was established by the Bertillon report received by Sheriff John M Boyes, Tuesday, from the Bureau of Criminal Identification at Leavenworth. Blinn served three prison terms in Massachusetts.

Blinn was taken to San Quentin Tuesday, to start a 1 to 15 years' sentence pronounced in superior court by Judge R L. Thompson Monday, when he pleaded guilty to robbery. Enroute Blinn admitted having served time in San Quentin, and it is thought that his California record is not in the hands of the bureau as he voiced a preference for working in the jute mill at San Quentin, saying he had worked there "last time."

G. M. RANEY IS BADLY INJURED

G. M. Raney, the popular head of the Raney service station and auto accessory establishment at Main and Oak streets, was painfuly injured on Wednesday evening when he tripped on the pavement in front of his station and fell heavily. At first it was feared that he had received a fracture of the left hip but an x-ray examination disclosed twisted and torn ligaments instead, a very painful and slow healing injury. He is now confined to his bed but hopes to be able to be around soon, as he is full of grit and pluck. Luckily his wife and their splendid sons can conduct every detail of the business of the big establishment, so he has no business worries to ad to his injury—Petaluma Argus.

CHARMING SCHOOL TEACHER TO WED HONOLULU MAN

Engagement of Miss Harriet Brand Announced at Afternoon Affair at Glen Ellen.

There was a pleasant gathering of friends at the Brand home near Glen Ellen Friday of last week, and there was a happy surprise in store for those who had come to make a visit to the Brands and their charming daughter, who is here from the Hawaiin Islands, visiting at the ranch. During the hour spent at the tea table, little cards, came to light, revealing the announcement of the engagement of Miss Harriet Brand to Arthur Douglas Macfie of Honolulu. Miss Brand, who taught school at Glen Ellen for a number of years and then went to the Islands to teach, met her fiance there. She will return to Honolulu to continue her school teaching and will be married as soon as Mr. Macfie can arrange his affairs and can come to California on his honeymoon.

Miss Brand was deluged with good wishes, and friends throughout the Valley of the Moon will extend the heartiest congratulations.

"VALLEY OF THE MOON NIGHT" IN ELKDOM

"Valley of the Moon Night," Wednesday, July 27, will be one of the gala nights of Elkdom, and all the members from Sonoma, Eldridge and elsewhere wil be in attendance on this occasion. A majority of the novices who will be admitted to the paddock on this occasion will be residents of that section of our district, and they will be given some features of entertainment which will be pleasing. The Jinx Committee is working hard and have perfected some new stunts for the eastern portion of the county.

One of the pleasures anticipated by the officers and members will be the presence in the lodge room once more of Brother Gustav Thoren. This brother met with a distressing accident by being burned by gasoline on May 28, and while he has not entirely recovered from his accident, he will be able to browse with the antlered herd on "Valley of the Moon Night." He is one of the substantial members of the order, an Elk in every sense of the word, and one who was always in the vanguard in every movement for the progress or upbuilding of our beloved order. It is of such material that the Elks' lodges al over the country are composed, and Santa Rosa lodge is proud to have among its members such men as Brother Thoren.

Among the prominent men who are expected to take the obligation on Wednesday, July 27, is Superior Judge Rolfe L Thompson. Few men are so well and favorably known as Judge Thompson, and his friends in the order will all be on hand to give him a rousing welcome into the order.

"Valley of the Moon Night" will be one of the greatest nights in Elkdom that the local lodge has ever had the privilege of chronicling, and should attract a monster attendance. Let every brother come out on this occasion and fraternize in the pad dock. It will be worth the while, and the entertainment will be of a superior order.—646 News

It was our earnest desire to satisfy every customer. However, in the hurry and rush of the sale, should there be anyone dissatisfied with any article purchased they will confer a favor upon the management, if they will return such article for exchange or adjustment.

We desire to inform our friends that this merchandise was not bought specially for the sale, but is the same class of goods we have been selling every day.

BUY IN SONOMA

This is what you can gain by buying in Sonoma!

First--You find a satisfactory guarantee, and in case your purchase, for any reason, is not satisfactory or not the correct size, your home merchant is at your door ready to make any adjustment.

Second--The prices you will find in Sonoma are as low or lower than elsewhere. I would appreciate your getting our prices before making your purchases. I would appreciate still more if you would obtain outside prices for comparison. But please do not compare our merchandise and prices with those found in salvage stores.

Third--Trading in Sonoma means growth for the city. Growth for the city means more investment, more investment means larger assessment, larger assessment means less tax. Therefore trading in Sonoma means benefit to yourself as well as to the merchant.

FALL MERCHANDISE

Our complete line of Fall Merchandise, which will consist of Coats, Suits, Dresses and Furs of every description, and a full line of Dress Goods, consisting of all kinds of Woolens, Silks, Velvets, Georgettes, and Cotton Goods, will be on display about August 15th, and your inspection of our new line will be appreciated.
